Dear Judge Marrero:

The undersigned represents plaintiff in the referenced matter. I write to you with the consent of my adversary, Gerald D. Silver, Esq.

There is presently scheduled a case management conference before Your Honor for February 18, 2011 at 11:00 a.m. I write to request that this conference be adjourned and that it be combined with the settlement conference presently scheduled for April 15, 2011. ~~The parties have completed paper discovery, but have fallen a bit behind in the taking of depositions. The depositions of plaintiff's representatives are scheduled for March 30, 2011 and will be taken in San Jose, CA. The deposition of defendant's representative will take place the following week.~~

For the foregoing reasons, it is respectfully requested that our next conference with Your Honor take place on April 15, 2011.

Respectfully yours,

Michael A. Spero
